How to get PKU Campus?

The UK Campus of Peking University HSBC Business School (PHBS) is located in Boars Hill OX1 5HR where is about 2.8 miles away from Oxford City. It is easily accessible by driving from A34 and by taking public transport.

By driving

The Campus provides ample parking, where you can drive from A34 and off towards Hinksey Hill. You shall turn right on the first in Hinksey Hill Road towards Foxcombe Road. By driving a few minutes on Foxcombe Road, you will find a road sign of PHBS UK Campus and then turn right on the first to Berkeley Road. The Campus is on your left-hand side after about 500 yards from the junction between Berkeley Road and Foxcombe Road.

By public transports

From Oxford Central Railway Station

If you arrive in Oxford Central Station by train, there is a bus stop on your left-hand side (Stop R3) when you walk out of the station. You can take Bus X3 to Redbridge Park & Ride, and get off at Chatham Road Stop. There is a Campus shuttle bus that will pick up you from Chatham Road Stop to the Campus.

Alternatively, you can take taxi outside of the railway station, which takes about 10-15 minutes to get the Campus at some £13-£16. You can also pre-book a taxi by phone or online:
